

In my opinion media ownership is already too monopolized by large corporate entities. Further centralization will diminish competition by small business, exacerbate unemployment, & make impossible true investment by venture capitalists - the backbone of a growing economy. You'll are really STUPID!